Mrs. Hughes moved to reconsider the vote by which the amendment was lost, and to table the motion to reconsider.

The motion to table prevailed.

Mr. Pope offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend House Bill No. 282 by striking out all after the enacting clause, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"Section 1. Hereafter all persons, firms, or corporations, required to file income tax returns to the United States of America, under the income tax laws of said United States, as the same now are or may hereafter be amended, shall annually file a duplicate of such income tax return with the State Tax Board of the State of Texas at the time such income tax return is filed as required to be filed with the Collector of Internal Revenue of the United States.

"Sec. 2. That the same exemptions and the same methods of assessing, levying, collecting, paying, and time of paying the Federal income tax are hereby adopted, except that the rate of taxation shall be one-fourth of that required to be annually paid to the United States under and by virtue of the income tax laws of the United States, and said taxpayers, under the Federal income tax laws, shall be liable for and shall pay to the State of Texas, at the time and in the amounts, less three-fourths thereof, due annually to the United States.

"Sec. 3. That all of the acts condemned and the penalties therefor, under the Federal income tax laws are hereby made applicable and adopted as part of the provisions of this Act, and are made enforceable as such in the name of the State of Texas.

"Sec. 4. That the revenue received under the provisions hereof shall be placed in the State Treasury and divided by the State Tax Board as the State ad valorem is divided between the General Revenue Fund, Available School Fund, and Confederate Pension Fund, and the aggregate amount obtained under the provisions of this Act shall be used to decrease and diminish the State ad valorem tax rate on property, and said tax rate is hereby reduced in proportion to the revenue received from the taxes imposed by this Act. That hereafter all amounts raised under the State ad valorem tax rate in excess of the amount raised in 1933, less the amount of revenue received from the tax imposed by this Act, shall be void, and as to such excess said State ad valorem tax, it shall be proportionately reduced. That the same Federal tax rate, and interests, and secrecy, required of the officials, and the refund of excess payments and illegal collections, as provided under the Federal income tax laws, when such illegal payments or excess payments are established by the Federal Government, shall be binding upon the State of Texas.

"Sec. 5. If any word, phrase, sentence, paragraph, or section of this Act shall be held invalid or unconstitutional, such holding shall not affect the remaining portions of this Act, and it is hereby declared to be the legislative intent to enact such other portions of this Act not so held invalid.

"Sec. 6. The fact that the ad valorem tax for State purposes has broken down as a revenue producer, and the fact that the State property tax system is discriminatory beyond repair, coupled with the fact that there is a great need for a redistribution of the tax burden in line with ability to pay taxes create an emergency and an imperative public necessity demanding that the constitutional rule, requiring that bills be read on three several days, be suspended, and said rule is hereby suspended, and this Act shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage, and it is so enacted."

Mr. Daniel moved the previous question on the pending amendment and the bill, and the main question was ordered.

(Pending consideration of the amendment, Mr. Aikin occupied the Chair temporarily.)

(Speaker in the Chair.)

REASONS FOR VOTES

I vote "no," because I believe the proper time to consider revenue-raising bills to be after the appropriation and retrenchment bills have been passed, in order that the amount of new revenue needed, if any, can be more wisely determined. If new taxes are necessary, I favor the plan of the income tax, which carries with it a substantial reduction in the ad valorem tax.

FAIN.

I vote "no," because the appropriation bills have not been passed out, and we have no way of determining how much revenue will be needed to make up the deficit, and I do not propose to increase the burden of taxation upon any class of people until I am certain that such is necessary. If we pass this bill now and later it develops that the additional revenue is not needed, the amount raised would be squandered by the tax-eating boards and bureaus of our Government. It is further my opinion that when any additional burden is put on the people an equal amount should be taken off of the people. I vote "no," not because I am opposed to the theory of an income tax, but upon the theory that it is an additional burden on the taxpayers of this State.

SULLIVANT.

Amend House Bill No. 62 by striking out all below the enacting clause, and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"Section 1. That Article 1778, of Chapter 6, of Title 37, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, be amended so as hereafter to read as follows:

"Article 1778. All executions for costs of the Supreme Court shall be returned by the officer to whom they are directed within thirty, sixty, or ninety days from the date thereof, as the court, or clerk thereof, may direct."

"Sec. 2. That Article 1871, of Chapter 5, of Title 39, of the Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925, be amended so as hereafter to read as follows:

"Article 1871. All executions for costs of the Courts of Civil Appeals, as authorized by law, shall be returned by the sheriff or constable to whom they are directed within thirty, sixty, or ninety days from the date thereof, as the court, or clerk thereof, may direct."

"Sec. 3. That all laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith be, and the same are hereby, repealed.

"Sec. 4. The fact that there is no necessity for the length of time now allowed by law for returning executions for costs issued from the Supreme Court and Courts of Civil Appeals, and that such elapse of time frequently delays the dispatch of business of the courts and works injury to the rights of litigants creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the constitutional rule, requiring bills to be read on three several days, be suspended, said rule is hereby suspended, and this Act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted."

The amendment was adopted.

HOUSE BILL NO. 182 ON SECOND READING

The Speaker laid before the House, on its second reading and passage to engrossment,

H. B. No. 182, A bill to be entitled "An Act to amend Article 6834, and Article 6835, Title 118, of the Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas of 1925, by striking out the phrase of 'two-thirds of the taxpayers' wherever the same appears therein and inserting in lieu thereof the clause, 'two-thirds majority of the resident property taxpayers voting thereon,' and declaring an emergency."

The bill was read second time.

Mr. Bedford offered the following committee amendments to the bill:

Amend House Bill No. 182 by striking out all below the enacting clause, and inserting in lieu thereof, the following:

"Section 1. That Article 6834, Title 118, of the Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas of 1925, as amended by Acts of the Fourth Called Session of the Forty-first Legislature, Chapter 35, page 73, Section 1, and by the Acts of the Fifth Called Session of the Forty-first Legislature, Chapter 28, page 160, Section 1, be, and the same is hereby, amended so as to hereafter read as follows:

"Article 6834. (5589) Election. Commissioners court to secure list of voters). For the purpose of ascertaining whether two-thirds majority of the qualified voters voting thereon, who are resident property taxpayers in said county or city, have voted in favor of said proposed taxation the commissioners court or governing body shall secure from the tax collector of the county a list of all the qualified voters in said county or city, as the case may be, and in addition to any other notice required by law, the commissioners court or governing body shall mail to each qualified voter therein a copy of such proposition as submitted at least ten days before the date of such election. Before any bonds shall be issued hereunder, the proposition to levy a tax to pay the interest and sinking fund on such bonds shall be submitted to the qualified voters who are property taxpayers of such county or city; said election to be held and said bonds issued and sold as provided in Chapter 1, Title 22, Revised Civil Statutes of Texas, 1925. The ballots in said election shall contain the words in substance: "In favor of the proposed tax," or "Against the proposed tax."

"Sec. 2. That Article 6835, Title 118, of the Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas of 1925, as amended by Acts of the Fourth Called Session of the Forty-first Legislature, Chapter 35, page 73, Section 2, be, and the same is hereby, amended so as to read as follows:

"Article 6835. (5590) Results of Election. The commissioners court or governing body, as soon as practicable after said election, shall meet and canvass the returns thereof and ascertain and record in the minutes the result as shown by said returns. If said commissioners court or governing body shall find that due notice of said election and submission of said question has been made to all of the qualified voters who are taxpayers in said county or city as herein provided, and that in said election two-thirds majority of the qualified voters, who are resident property taxpayers voting thereon in said election, voted in favor of the said tax, such commissioners court or governing body shall find that two-thirds majority of the qualified voters who are resident property taxpayers of said county or city voting thereon in said election, voted in favor of the tax and thereupon said commissioners court or governing body shall be authorized to issue the bonds and levy the tax for the purposes provided in this Title."

"Sec. 3. The fact that Article XI, Section 7, of the Constitution of the State of Texas was amended at the general election on November 8, 1932, authorizing all counties and cities bordering on the coast of the Gulf of Mexico upon a vote of a two-thirds majority of the resident property taxpayers voting thereon at an election called for such purpose, to levy and collect taxes for the construction of sea walls, breakwaters, or sanitary purposes instead of a vote of two-thirds of the taxpayers thereon, creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the constitutional rule, requiring bills to be read on three several days, be suspended, and such rule is hereby suspended, and this Act shall take effect from and after its passage, and it is so enacted."

Strike out all above the enacting clause of House Bill No. 182, and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"H. B. No. 182,

A BILL

To Be Entitled

An Act to amend Article 6834, of the Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas of 1925, as amended by Acts of the Fifth Called Session of the Forty-first Legislature, Chapter 28, page 160, Section 1, relating to the manner of holding elections for the issuing of sea wall bonds, and to amend Article 6835, of the Revised Civil Statutes of the State of Texas of 1925, as amended by Acts of the Fourth Called Session of the Forty-first Legislature, Chapter 35, page 73, Section 2, relating to the manner of declaring the results of elections held for the issuance of sea wall bonds, and declaring an emergency."

The amendments were severally adopted.
